Laxey commissioner's campsite, Isle of Man

My favourite campsite is at Laxey on the Isle of Man. The campsite is halfway down the valley side - Laxey is built around a river valley/glen with steep sides with views across the valley and east and west along it, towards the Laxey Wheel. The facilities are not in the luxury class but the location is worth it and it's a brisk walk to the splendid Mines Tavern and the electric railway terminal. There's also one curious feature: the campsite is located in a part of Laxey called "Minorca" so you can legitimately say you've been to Minorca for your holidays. Contact: 01624 862623. John Edward Bate from Laxey sees it as his vocation to go that extra mile for his customers at the Laxey Campsite. He was recently awarded "Best Customer Service from an individual" in the Isle of Man Government Tourism awards 2007 after several nominations from happy punters.
